Coaching Sessions

Vocal Performance

Preparing for an upcoming audition or special performance? Schedule a series of vocal coaching sessions with Rachel for individualized instruction to take your performance to the next level. Coaching sessions focus on concepts related to vocal production, artistic interpretation, stage presence, and expressive communication.

Conducting Foundations

Do you have a background in music but little experience with conducting? Schedule a series of conducting coaching sessions with Rachel to build a solid foundation of effective conducting gestures, repertoire selection, and score study to help you step onto the podium with confidence.

Music Theory Applications

Want to develop a better understanding of music theory? Schedule a series of music theory coaching sessions with Rachel to learn how to apply music theory concepts as a practicing musician. Coaching sessions focus on topics such as chord relationships, common progressions, easy transposition, and practical applications.

Worship Music Piano

Are you a pianist who can read music but feels at a loss in a worship band setting where the sheet music is just lyrics and guitar chords? Schedule a series of coaching sessions with Rachel to learn the basics of piano chord structures and patterning and to gain insights on how to improvise effectively from a worship music chord chart or lead sheet.

Rachel Morgan Im is a freelance musician. A talented conductor, engaging teacher, and charismatic performer, she has served in such roles at local, state, and national levels. Her primary instrument is voice, but she also plays piano, djembe, and guitar. Former students have been accepted to collegiate music programs and others have earned positions as performers, music teachers, and theatre directors. Previously a full-time school music teacher, Rachel was recognized as an Outstanding Teacher and was named a Teacher of the Year Finalist for Carroll County Public Schools. She holds a Master of Music degree in Music Education from the Peabody Institute of the Johns Hopkins University and a Bachelor of Music Education from the Conservatory of Music of Wheaton College. She has also completed masters-level coursework centered on world folk art, music, and dance at McDaniel College and has studied West African hand drumming.
